

THE AMERICAN BATTLE MONUMENTS COMMISSION

Courthouse Plaza II, Suite 500
2300 Clarendon Boulevard
Arlington, VA 22201

Established by Congress 1923

June 7, 2005

Joshua B. Bolten
Director
Office of Management and Budget
New Executive Office Building
725 17th St. N.W.
Washington, DC 20503

Dear Mr. Bolten:

This letter constitutes the Commission's reporting requirements for fiscal year 2005 for Public Law 105-270, Federal Activities Inventory Reform (FAIR) Act of 1998.

In accordance with the FAIR Act and Circular A-76, all federal employees of the American Battle Monuments Commission are performing inherently government activities.

Our Washington Office, consisting of 17 employees, is engaged in policy development and is therefore performing inherently government activities. Our overseas operations are predominantly staffed with foreign national employees. U.S. Government employees who are based at our overseas locations are in supervisory positions and are also performing inherently government activities.

This letter will be posted to the ABMC Website at "www.abmc.gov". Questions may be directed to Mr. Richard Holcomb by calling (703) 696-6898.

Sincerely,

J. W. Nicholson
Brigadier General, US Army (Ret)
Secretary
